Conservatory colour - Sage Green

Colour - applied correctly - has a profound positive effect on your wellbeing. It strongly influences how we interact with each other and our surroundings.

So what can you consider for your home and conservatory? Consider this:-

Black

Powerful, sophisticated, substantial, uncompromising

White/Cream

Has some of the characteristics of black with the addition of cleanliness and purity

Green

Related to nature, offers harmony and balance

Grey

Neutral, can work well with other colours, acting as a support to them

BS colour references are made in good faith. The colours above are reproduced as accurately as printing will allow, if in doubt always request an actual physical sample/foil swatch.

These conservatories feature major parts that are actually foil laminated, with only a minority of parts actually painted.

The foil laminated products used on major items in the roof and on the PVC side frames, have a real woodgrain texture to add a further dose of character.

The products can be coloured one side or both sides with the possibility to mix colours between the outside and the inside.

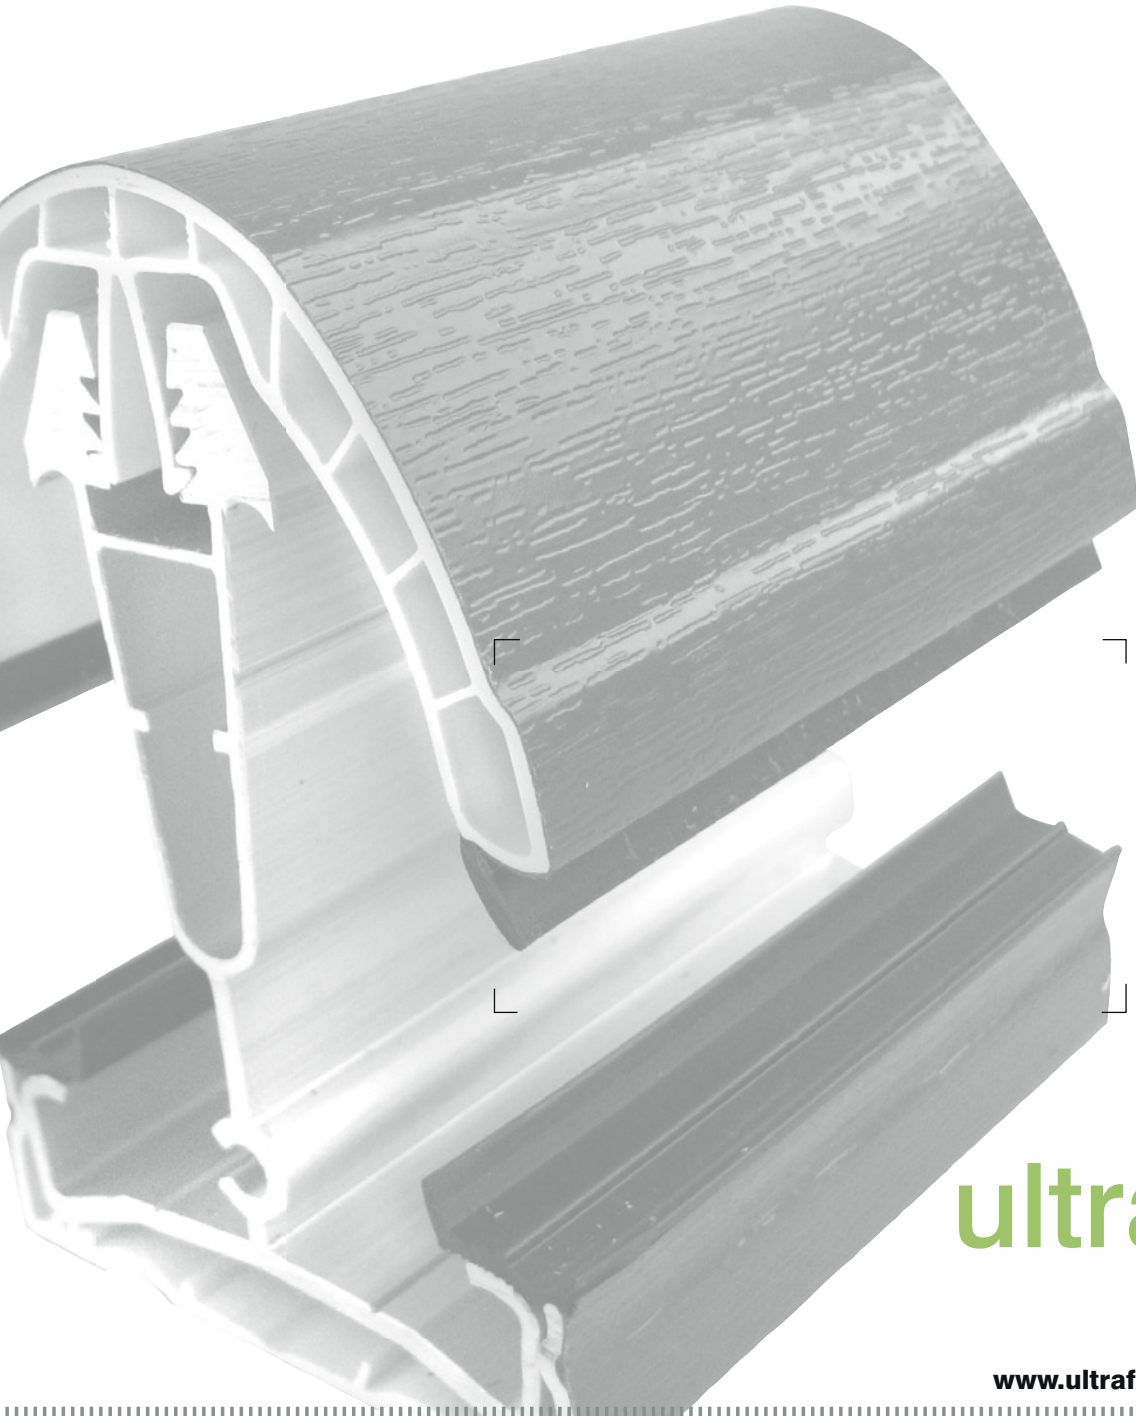

Ask to see a copy of our coloured swatches or sample profiles before you order.
